KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Their Meeting on Monday Minneapolis.

THE ORGANIZATION COMPLETE.

The Speech Making of the Occasion—The Bright Future for the Workingmen of America—Etc.

The Knights' Convention.

MINNEAPOLIS, October 2.—Arrangements for the morning exercises of the Knights of Labor General Assembly are completed. Welcoming addresses will be made by the Mayor and Governor, with responses by Messrs. Powderly and Litchmann. In the evening there will be an entertainment, with addresses by Powderly and A. Streeter, the president of the National Farmers' Alliance, followed by a grand ball.

CHICAGO, October 3.—General Master Workman Powderly, of the Knights of Labor, passed through this city to-day on his way to Minneapolis. He would not talk on any question of general interest. From the talk among Chicago delegates it is thought strenuous efforts will be made to remove General Secretary Litchmann, whom they accuse of acting in bad faith in many ways.
The convention will be a bitter struggle from beginning to end, the anti-Powderly element being represented by the ablest leaders. One of the interesting features will be the debate on socialism, which Joseph La Dadie, of Detroit, will bring up. It is stated that he will demand an explanation from Mr. Powderly why he, who for years was a member in good standing of the Socialistic Labor Party, has gone back on his principles.

MINNEAPOLIS, October 3.—The general assembly of the Knights of Labor was called to order in Washington Rink, this morning, by J. P. McGaughey, Secretary of the Co-operative Board, and chairman of the local committee of arrangements. The rink was handsomely decorated and contained about three thousand people. McGaughey read telegrams from Powderly and Secretary Litchmann, stating that they had not arrived until afternoon. Governor McGill had been called east and was not able to make an address of welcome on the part of the State. McGaughey made a brief speech on the growth of the order in the northwest and introduced Major Ames, who made a formal address of welcome.

In response to Mayor Ames' address of welcome, Richard Griffiths, General Worthy Foreman, was introduced in place of Powderly. He was followed by A. A. Carleton, of the general executive board. Carleton spoke particularly of the growth of the order and said that would appear when the reports were all in, that the order was not going to pieces, but was in reality stronger than ever. He declared that so long as many were deprived of the rightful share of the product of their toil the order would have work to do.

Ralph Beaumont, of New York, one of the best talkers in the order, was the next speaker. He said it is said this organization will go down. If this is so, if it does go down, another organization grander and stronger will be reared in its place. The work of this order has not been accomplished. There are men in this organization who will come before the country as leaders yet.
Twenty-five years hence men who are in the order to-day will be a power in the land. They will tower in the ranks with men like Blaine and their power will be felt. The work of this organization has just begun. There are principles in it that are bound to stand.
The people of America cannot afford to let the organization go down.

Richard Trevelly concluded the morning session with a short speech, pledging the order to the support of American principles and American institutions.

The convention then adjourned until this evening, when General Master Workman Powderly is expected to deliver an address on the world as knighthood would make it.

General Master Workman Powderly, General Secretary Litchmann and most of the other delayed delegates to the general assembly arrived this afternoon. The great hall, capable of seating 15,000 people, was crowded at the opening of the evening exercises.

Mr. Powderly's address was received with unbounded enthusiasm. He was announced to speak on "The World As Knighthood Would Make It." He said, in the beginning, that he would not tell them anything of the kind. "The world as Knighthood would make it" would take up more time than I could give to it here to-night. Men say the Knights can never attain what is aimed at in their declaration of principles. Then they go to church and pray for better things than the Knights ever dreamed of. The men who say that this may earth be made a kingdom of heaven would deny a place in the legislative halls; the men who make these prayers lie when they make them.
The Knights of Labor respect the laws and intend to take a hand in making the laws. Our organization is not a partisan organization, but in the true sense of the word it is a political organization. The man who studies with us will be able to vote intelligently. If he is not there is something wrong with his head. I have been taken to task on a few things. It has been charged that I did not favor immigration. It is a mistake. I am of foreign birth myself. I have no objection to foreign immigration. I favor it. Several land grant companies, however, have their immigration agents. They bring in all manner of foreigners. If one of these poor creatures raises his hand, not against the law, for he knows none but against what he sees just before him, he is called an anarchist, and is punished while the men who loaded these poor creatures on this country go scot free (Thunderous applause). I hate Anarchists and anarchy. How can the child, reared in poverty, equal the institutions of this country? I as-stop the agent of the steamship company; take home the agent of the land company; stop importing foreigners; let only those come to our free America who come of their own free will to make their own home here. Is that saying anything against the foreigner? (Cries of "No, no.") This is why I am called a crank (a crank on the temperance question).
I may be a crank on this question, but I am not ashamed to say I would rather see a man a soberer than a drunkard. There are those who have threatened to leave the order because of my position on this question. To all such, I say go. I will trust the father of this nation with sober men and women, and I will never take back one word of what I have said on the temperance question, so help me God.

Mr. Powderly spoke briefly in eulogy of Thomas Armstrong, who died in Pittsburg a few days ago, and closed by urging every Knight to leave the hall determined to do his whole duty. "Let every man and woman read and lay to their hearts the declaration of the principles of the order. Let them do this, and when their work is over they can lie down, as did that dead workman (Armstrong), conscious that their work has been well done." Powderly said his condition was not what he would have liked to have it to discuss so large a subject as he was called upon to do. He was tired out and compelled to be brief.

The topic of President Streeter, of the National Farmers' Alliance, was "The people; their Governor." He began by showing that in Illinois farming was now being carried on at a loss and the population of the rural districts decreasing, while cities were growing.
Chicago to-day had millionaires by the hundred, and so have all the large cities. He asked how these great cities have grown up, and said, these wealthy men have been killing the goose which laid the golden egg.
He wanted to see one grand organization of the industrial interests of the country and when we do complete our organization, welded together by the common ties of humanity, you will hear something drop. We demand, in the name of the people who reduce the wealth of America, that our families shall not work themselves to death for the benefit of a few. The gentlemen of the present age have established an aristocracy instead of a government for the people; but we propose to take it and make a government for the common people."

Mr. Streeter did not think it possible to abolish existing events through the agency of the Knights of Labor and Farmers' Alliances in the new party.

The Ventriloquist's Trick.

A man was lately seen in London to shake a prettily dressed child, who screamed most piteously. Finally he threw it to the pavement and stamped upon it, for which he was knocked down by an indignant coachman, who then found he had struck a ventriloquist with a dummy.—Chicago News.

The New Commander.

MINNEAPOLIS, October 3.—Commander-in-Chief J. R. Rem, of the Grand Army of the Republic, arrived in this city this evening and was tendered a grand reception.
In a speech, he attributed his election to a desire of the G. A. R. to compliment Minneapolis on the magnificent reception of the national encampment three years ago. He disclaimed any political aspirations.

Seizing Joslin's Diamonds.

BUTTE, Mt., October 3.—Alvin Jos-lin's diamonds were seized by the assessor for $900 taxes to-day. Davis admitted to the assessor that he never paid taxes anywhere on them. The feeling here is strongly against the assessor, as it is likely to injure the show business and prevent troupes from coming here.

Another Massacre Probable.

New York, October 3.—The Tribune will say, to-morrow, that the Socialists and Anarchists are determined to hold a meeting in Union Hall on Wednesday night, in spite of police interference, and that a conflict, and a repetition of the Haymarket tragedy in Chicago are highly probable.

The Billiard Sharps.

New York, October 3.—At a meeting of the National Billiard Association today, arrangements were made for a big tournament between Sexton, Slossom, Daly, Carter and Schaeffer; the match to be played in two series—the first in New York in November, the second in Chicago in December.

Wool and Religion.

A western Michigan wool buyer who was circulating among farmers to engage their clips, met with one who was inclined to look upon the matter as a sort of gambling affair. "You agreed to buy my wool for so much a month in advance of shearing," said he. "How do you know that wool won't go up or down? The prices may be too much or not enough. It looks like flying in the face of Providence." After a long argument he agreed to leave it to his wife, and she replied: "Look a-here, Samuel, I'm just as good a Baptist as you are, and if there is anything in our religion which says we shen't take twenty eight cents a pound for our wool when we didn't expect above twenty-five, we'll accept the offer on the wool and flip over to the Methodists.—Dry Goods

The Oft Told Story

Of the peculiar medicinal merits of Hood's Sarsaparilla is fully confirmed by the voluntary testimony of thousands who have tried it.
Peculiar in the combination, proportion, and preparation of its ingredients, peculiar in the extreme care with which it is put up, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations entirely fail. Peculiar in the unequalled good name it has made at home, which is a "tower of strength abroad," peculiar in the phenomenal sales it has attained.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the most popular and successful medicine before the public today for purifying the blood, giving strength, creating an appetite.
"I suffered from wakefulness and low spirits, and also had eczema on the back of my head and neck, which was very annoying.
I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I have received so much benefit that I am very grateful, and I am always glad to speak a good word for this medicine." Mrs. J. S.
SNYDER, Pittsboro, Penn.

Purifies the Blood

Henry Biggs, Campbell Street, Kansas City, had scrofulous sores all over his body for fifteen years. Hood's Sarsaparilla completely cured him.
Wallace Buck, of North Bloomfield, N. Y., suffered eleven years with a terrible varicose ulcer on his leg, so bad that he had to give up business. He was cured of the ulcer, and also of catarrh, by
